

Modern Slavery Policy
2025

Voluntary Modern Slavery Statement

This statement is made voluntarily by Client Talk Ltd for the financial year ending 31 August 2025, in line with the principles of the Modern Slavery Act 2015.

Our Business

Client Talk Ltd is a coaching-based consultancy based in the UK. We provide Client Listening, Business Development Training, CX and Business Development consultancy and coaching.

Our Commitment

We are committed to preventing modern slavery and human trafficking in all areas of our business and supply chains. While we are not legally required to publish this statement, we do so to demonstrate our commitment to ethical business practices.

Supply Chains

Due to the nature of our business, we assess ourselves to have a low risk of modern slavery in our business and supply chains. Our supply chains are limited and we procure goods and services from a restricted range of UK and overseas suppliers

Policies and Practices

We have the following policies and practices to support our commitment:

- A zero tolerance approach to modern slavery and human trafficking
- A Supplier Code of Conduct (or clause in supplier contracts)

Due Diligence and Risk Management

We carry out basic checks on new suppliers and require them to confirm compliance with anti-slavery laws. Where appropriate, we will seek further assurances.

Training and Awareness

We raise awareness among relevant staff about the risks of modern slavery and how to spot signs of exploitation.

This statement has been approved by Claire Rason, Director of Client Talk Ltd, for the financial year ending 31 August 2025.

The statement will be reviewed and updated every year.
