Where strategy meets people

Providing coaching to a female partner looking to step up into leadership

AT A GLANCE

- 1:1 Coaching
- Reframing limiting beliefs
- Female leadership

CHALLENGE

Client Talk was approached to provide coaching to a female partner who was looking to step up into a leadership position within the firm. The partner wanted to explore what leadership meant to them and how they could lead authentically.

WHAT WE DID

We matched the partner with one of our female coaches. Together they worked on exploring the concept of leadership, focusing on what the individual needed to achieve as a leader and how she could do that in a way that was authentic to her.

Through our journey with the client there were a number of limiting beliefs that reared their head and we worked to reframe those to increase this female partner's confidence.

RESULTS

The client was successful in carving out a bigger role for herself and came away with increased understanding about herself and her style as a leader.

Working with Client Talk really helped me understand what was getting in the way of my progress and it helped me to voice concerns and think about things that I was struggling with. All the sessions were light-bulb moments.
